

Final Passages

Institute of Conscious Dying, Home Funeral and Green Burial Education

Let's Talk About Death: Film and Discussion Evening

February Movie: Defending Your Life

Non-profit Final Passages continues its monthly series with the February movie on Valentine's Day: Defending Your Life, a romantic comedy that proves that there is laugh after death.

Julia (Academy Award winner Meryl Streep) and Daniel (Albert Brooks) met in the Afterlife. In a court-like setting, they examine their lives on Earth, proving that they lived a full and fearless life. Daniel's life was far from fearless. Inspired by Julia, Daniel makes some fundamental changes. This witty look at Afterlife shows that there is laugh after death.

<http://finalpassages.org/feb-movie/>

Jerrigrace Lyons is the founder/director of Final Passages and a pioneer in the Home Funeral Movement. She is an educator, author and death midwife who has guided hundreds of families with a home funeral for their loved ones. Jerrigrace teaches courses worldwide on conscious dying, and family-based green funeral options and is featured in the PBS documentary A Family Undertaking.

Wed., Feb. 14, 2018

6:30 – 9:00 PM

Sebastopol Grange

6000 Hwy 12, Sebastopol, CA

Suggested Donation
$5 to $15 at the door

Final Passages is a 501c3 educational organization

Film followed by a lively educational discussion

ALBERT BROOKS MERYL STREEP

Defending
your Life

The First True Story of What Happens
After You Die

